TIRUPATI

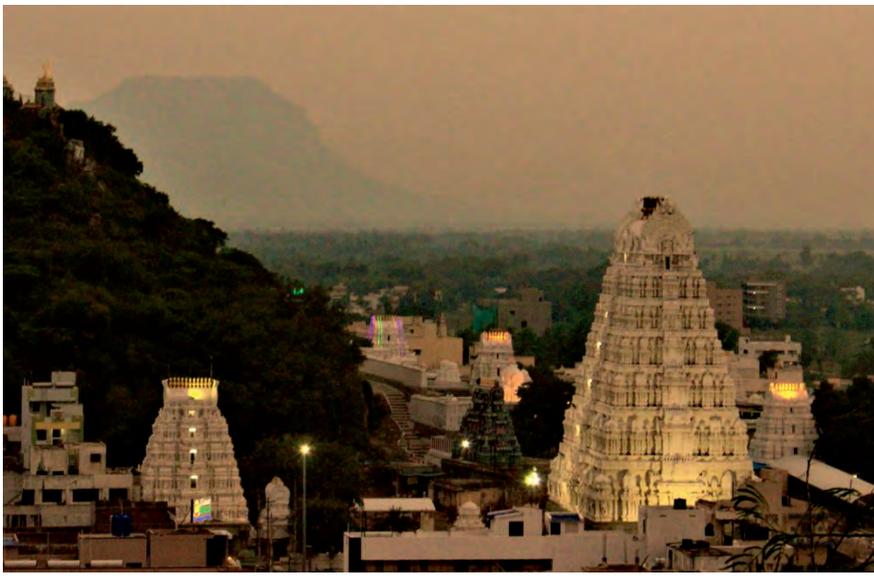

Tirumala & Tirupati, The abode of Lord Venkateshwara.

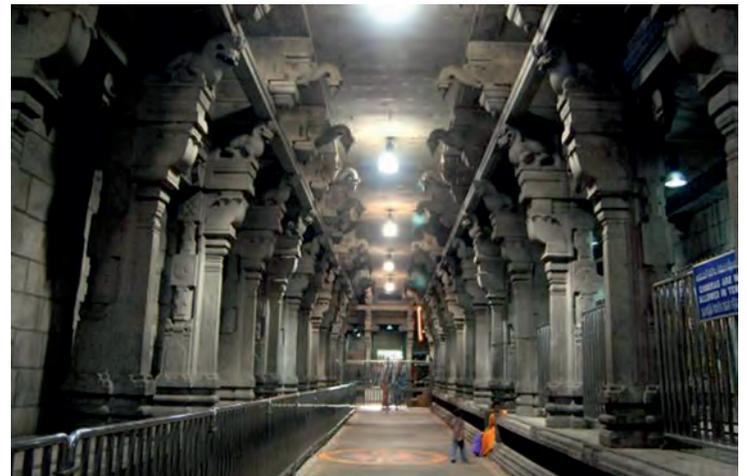

Built on the famous Seshachalam Hills, Tirumala Sri Venkateswara Temple is one of the most famous pilgrimage destinations in India. With more than 35 million pilgrims visiting the temple every year, it is one of the most visited holy places in the world. With breathtaking views amidst the greenery and lap of nature, Tirupati truly offers immense peace to both mind and soul. Devotees strongly believe that getting blessings from Lord Venkateshwara will lead to a wealthy future.

Explore Tirupati,
Experience Spirituality.

Srikalahasti

One of the famous destination spots for pilgrims to visit near Tirupati is Srikalahasti, a temple town with historical and religious significance. The temple is dedicated to Lord Shiva but also said to be associated with Rahu and Ketu, two celestial bodies in the realm of the Indian astrological scheme of things. The distance from Tirupati to Srikalahasti is 60km.

Tirupati, as a travel getaway, offers a great exploration possibility for both travel-inclined as well as spiritually-inclined mindset. There are several attractions in Tirupati town along with Srikalahasti, Kanipakam, Tiruchanur etc.

Tiruchanur

Tiruchanur, one of the oldest pilgrim towns located 5km away from Tirupati, is abode of Goddess Sri Padmavathi Devi. The temple is built according to the Dravidian style of architecture.

Kanipakam

Kanipakam temple is dedicated to Lord Ganesha and the deity is offered rituals in the name of Vara Siddhi Vinayaka. The rich religious significance of the temples and the stunning ancient architecture attracts visitors in large numbers each year. It is 85 km from Tirupati.

Luxury Meets Spirituality.

Travelling to a big pilgrimage center like Tirupati requires a lot of preplanning. The three things you have to keep in mind when you plan a trip to Tirupati are transportation, accommodation, and food. And, this is where International Reddy Bhavan comes into place.
